Montpelier, Aug. 2.—When the doors of the office of the city treasurer closed at 10:15 o'clock on Wednesday evening, marking the close of the receiving of taxes by that office, some $85,628.27, approximately figured, had been paid into the city treasury on the tax bill of the city for 1906. The delinquent taxes, that go into the hands of the city sheriff for collection, amount to $3,960.04, as compared with $1,640.88 in 1905.

Of the bills that will be turned over to City Sheriff L. H. Pollard, $303,967.41, are for poll taxes, and the remaining $610.04 are on property taxes.

Not for 11 years will tax bills be payable again on August 1. The fact that July 1 fell on Sunday this year and the provision of the law giving 30 days from the date of posting the notice of the tax bills in which to pay them, made the bills legally payable on August 1. Usually the date expires on July 31.

Few, comparatively, took advantage of the extra day of grace afforded, as but $3,828.99 was received on Wednesday.

Friends of Committeeman R. C. Sullivan Will Not Indorse Bryan.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 2.—William Jennings Bryan must pay for his demand that Roger C. Sullivan, Democratic national committeeman from Illinois, be ousted from the national committee, declare the followers of the Hopkins-Sullivan camp. They will not indorse Bryan for the presidency, they say, at the Democratic state convention which meets at Peoria on August 21.

Sullivan's friends expect to control the convention by more than a two-thirds vote. The delegates that Millard E. Dunlap and Judge Owen F. Thompson, whom they credit with the responsibility for Bryan's anti-Sullivan letters, will not have enough delegates to make a respectable committee.

The Hopkins-Sullivan Democrats declare that they will not only block the Bryan movement in the state convention, but will place into the hands of William R. Hearst.

Portland, Me., Aug. 2.—E. S. Bastin, a geologist at the United States geological survey, is in Maine and will devote some time to the study of peat in this state. It appears likely, he says, that peat will soon come into prominence as a fuel and for the production of fuel gas, for which some varieties are well adapted.

TOOK KINDLY TO JOHNSON

Rutlanders Peppered The "Down-easter"

WHILE LOCALS WERE WEAK

Visitors Had No Great Difficulty in Scoring Six Triumps, While the Best the Champs Could Do Was Two.

"Eke" Johnson from down in Maine, the new acquisition to the Intercity team, was peppered and pelted in a rule fashion at the local park yesterday afternoon by Rutland, while his support was boyish in spots. The Marble Cutters had no difficulty in winning the game, 6 to 2, as the locals couldn't do much of anything with Wiltse's left-handed lifts.

"Eke" had no trouble in locating the plate. The trouble was that he located it too well and as the ball sailed down the groove directly over the center of the pan the Rutland wood-choppers met it fair and square, twisting it back for nine safe swats. The Down-easter has good speed but that was just what the sluggers from Rutland were looking for, and their drives were long, clean swats. Duff patted an almost out of sight down the left field line and got three bases on it. Shean also sliced out a long one, easily good for two bases but his ambition to make it a three-bagger ended in his discomfiture at third.

The locals started the game in a crippled condition and they ended up in worse condition. Eaton, just recovering from an injury, got in the way of Duff who was sliding home and was knocked out so completely that he had to leave the game. Daniels being called in from left field to go behind the bat, Burns took the sun-garden after that. McMahon hobbled about in the right corner like a lame horse, but in spite of his condition worked in one pretty catch, stalling a ball with one hand as it sailed over his head, labelled for two bases at least. Williams made one beautiful one-handed scoop of a hot shot and got his man at first. Deininger shone for Rutland with a pretty running catch in left center, cutting off an apparently sure hit. Collins, Shean and Bagley worked in a machine-like double-play that snuffed out the aspirations of the locals.

Two two-baggers were responsible for the two tallies by the Intercity, McMahon contributing one in the first inning and Daniels one in the third. After that Wiltse had the champs fishing on dry land. With one down in the sixth drive against the ball for another two-bagger but died as Asmore and Elliott fanned.

The visitors bunched hits in the first, third and seventh, scoring one, two and two runs respectively. In the second they were aided to a score by Johnson's gift to Collins, the runner being finally brought in by Wiltse. Johnson made another mistake in the seventh when he attempted to break Bruce's leg with a fast shot. The Rutlanders avenged the insult by driving in two runs, Deininger hitting for a base and Duff for three bases. After his performance Duff went up and shook hands with a lady friend in the grand stand and then struck out when he went up to the bat next time. In fact, Wiltse struck out also, in the same inning, which, together with Bagley's failure to hit the ball in the fifth, made three strike outs for Johnson.

Fred Huntington a Montpelier boy, took the curses as umpire, and came out of it with a whole skin. The score and summary:

HANDS LOOKED LIKE RAW BEEF

Terribly Inflamed, and Watery Matter Would Drop from Fingers—Had Doctor All Winter, But Grew Worse All the Time.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT EXPENSE OF $3.75

"My hands broke out with eczema. One of the best physicians in this section treated me all winter till the next spring, but I grew worse all the time. I tried everything I could hear of. At last in May my husband happened to be in the store and saw the Cuticura Remedies, and as a last resort bought them, Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent. I commenced taking them, and when I had used three bottles of the Resolvent and the Soap and Ointment to go with it, I was cured."

"My hands were so bad and inflamed they were purple and raw as meat, and when I held them down, watery matter would drop off the fingers. I used the Soap to bathe them in and applied the Ointment spread on linen cloths, in which I did them up. I did not have to stop work when I was taking Cuticura, but I began taking it in May, and before cold weather my hands were entirely healed. You may use this any way you please, and I hope it will help other sufferers as it did me. (Signed) Mrs. Abbie A. Saulters, West Danville, Vt., April 19, 1905."

MUST MAKE ASSESSMENT.

Otherwise Two Fire Insurance Companies Lose Licenses.

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—Insurance Commissioner Wolf said yesterday that the Firemen's Fund Insurance Company and the Home Fire and Marine Insurance Company will be given four weeks in which to make up the deficiency between their assets and their liabilities. If, at the end of that time, this has not been done, he will bring proceedings to have the licenses of the two concerns revoked and ask Attorney General Webb to take the necessary action to wind up the affairs of the two companies.

The commissioner will notify the companies that an assessment must be levied on the stockholders sufficient to bring the assets up to the amount of the liabilities.

The stock in the Home Fire and Marine is owned principally by the Firemen's Fund, and both companies suspended operations after the recent fire. The Firemen's Fund is one of the oldest insurance companies in the state.
